++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry and cloudy, odd sunnier spell, slightly colder.

Today:
Remaining settled on Friday with any mist or fog slow to lift. Cloudy with a few breaks in the cloud especially to the west of any high ground. Temperatures down a little on recent days. Maximum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Tonight:
Any clear spells filling in, with most places becoming cloudy but dry overnight. Low cloud and fog giving poor driving conditions particularly across the Snowdonia and the Brecon Beacons. Minimum temperature 1 deg C (34 deg F).

Saturday:
Cloudy and dry for most, mist and fog slow to lift into low cloud. Skies breaking a little in the west, temperatures down a notch on Friday's. Maximum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Largely settled Sunday and into the new week, but on the cloudy side with limited bright spells. Continued risk of fog and frost under overnight cloud breaks. Gradually turning colder.
